Country Specific Provisions (Thailand) to the Global Privacy Notice

If you are residing in Thailand, the following country-specific provisions will be applicable to you.

What additional information we collect

If you are a Thai national holding a Thai national identification card, we may collect your sensitive personal data, i.e. religion and/or blood type, when collecting a copy of said identification document from you for management of our contractual relationship. If required by applicable data protection laws, we will collect this sensitive personal data with your explicit consent.

During the due diligence process, we may collect sensitive personal data, in that case we will seek your explicit consent to the extent required by applicable law.

Your rights

In addition to the rights stated above, you are also entitled to the following right:

Right to Data Portability. You have the right to request a copy of your personal data, in a machine-readable format, for the purpose of transferring it to another data controller.

Right to Withdraw Consent. If you have given your consent to anything we do with your personal data, you have the right to withdraw your consent at any time (although if you do so, it does not mean that anything we have done with your personal data with your consent up to that point is unlawful). Please note that where your personal data is required for the purpose of contractual necessity, we may not be able to perform our contractual obligation or proceed with your request to enter into a contract with us if you withdraw your consent laws which are as strict as the ones required by your local personal data protection law and regulant.

International Data Transfers

Your personal data may be transferred to our group companies, affiliates, and service providers which are located outside of Thailand. While we try our best to ensure that the person who receives your personal data is located in a country that has data protection laws, there could be an instance where your personal data will be transferred to other countries which do not implement adequate personal data protection standards.

Nevertheless, we ensure that any and all such international data transfers are made in compliance with the applicable data protection laws in Thailand.
